SILVER NOTES AND TREASURY NOTES.

Some California newspapers in discussing the silver question confound silver notes with Treasury notes, and create the impression that both are redeemable in gold only. This might be expected from the goldbug papers of the east, but California papers, especially those which are favorable to silver, ought to have a more intelligent idea of the subject.

Silver notes are certificates of deposit, which are a legal tender for their face value. It is stated on their face that there are deposited in the United States Treasury silver dollars, equal in amount to the face value of the notes, with which to redeem them on presentation. No option is given the Secretary of the Treasury in the matter. He has to redeem the notes in silver, however much he might desire to reduce the gold reserve by redeeming them in gold coin so as to have an excuse for issuing more bonds. Silver certificates were issued for the convenience of those who preferred paper money to silver dollars. The notes are a legal tender for any debt that can be paid in silver dollars.

Treasury notes were issued in payment of silver bullion purchased under the Sherman act. They are redeemable in silver or gold coin at the option of the Secretary of the Treasury. Under Harrison's Administration neither Secretary Windom nor his successor, Secretary Foster, redeemed the notes with silver dollars. The present administration proves that there is no difference between it and Harrison's administration on the financial question as it follows the rule laid down by Secretaries Windom and Foster. It would, no doubt, grievously offend Secretary Carlisle to have a person present a Treasury note and demand silver for it. Though the law authorizes and, in fact, directs the Secretary of the Treasury to coin sufficient of the silver bullion purchased under the Sherman act to redeem the Treasury notes issued in payment of that bullion, not a dollar is being coined for that purpose, and at one time last summer silver dollars were at a premium in New York City.

In addition to the silver notes and the Treasury notes referred to, there are silver certificates issued by the Western National bank of New York. These are sometimes confounded with the silver notes issued by the Government and they are frequently quoted in the New York exchange reports, at about the same rate as silver bullion. These silver certificates are issued upon bullion deposited in the Western National bank, and are redeemable in silver bullion. They are not a legal tender for any amount, are not authorized nor recognized by the Government and are issued for the convenience of dealers in silver bullion.

Silver notes, Treasury notes and greenbacks all pass current at their face value in the East, because they are legal tender and a goldbug, who would spurn silver dollars, readily accepts silver notes in all ordinary business transactions.

AN UNREASONABLE REQUEST.

The United States Senate adopted a resolution in favor of coining Mexican dollars at the United States Mints. Sherman and all the other goldbugs in the Senate voted for the resolution. There is no probability of Mexico consenting to have its coins minted in the United States. It is prepared to do that work itself. It would not increase the value of the Mexican dollar to have it coined in the United States, and the only benefit the United States could derive from the coinage would be in keeping the Mints running.

But is it not very inconsistent for our lawmakers to ask the privilege of coining Mexican dollars in the United States? Why not use our Mints in coining American dollars and get more money in circulation? We have abundance of silver; one of our Mints is closed and the others are not running on full time, as they coin only gold and subsidiary coins. If it would be a good thing for the country to coin Mexican dollars if ought to beat least as beneficial to the nation to coin American dollars. If the bullion in the treasury should be coined it would add $5,000,000 to the assets of the government without injury or loss to any one. It seems like a child's play to ask Mexico for a privilege which we have a right to exercise ourselves.

SHOULD EMULATE CATO.

It is related of Cato, the Censor, that he was wont to conclude his addresses to the Roman Senate with the admonition, "Destroy Carthage." The Dubuque Telegraph says Cato did this because he realized that unless Rome destroyed Carthage, Carthage would destroy Rome. Some American Senators should emulate Cato by frequently warning his colleagues and the people that unless the United States destroys gold monometallism, gold monometallism will destroy the United States.

The Lyon County Times says: The Republican papers here J. L. Campbell on their list as a member of the Republican State Central Committee for this county. Take him off, he is a Silver party man.

The Strike on the Great Northern—Congressional Proceedings.

THE INDUSTRIAL ARMY.

Preparing for Their Reception at Washington.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Evidences of preparations for the Coxeyites were seen about the halls and corridors of Congress to-day. A double force of officers were stationed at all entrances of the Capitol. The lobbies were patrolled, also halls giving ingress to the Congressional galleries. The officers were polite to sightseers. People came and went with the same freedom as usual.

Two large partitions with gates were erected on either of the main rotunda. Sergeant-at-Arms Snow explained that the gates were the same as those used at the inauguration, and were used whenever unusual crowds were expected to prevent a congestion of crowds in the rotunda when closed. The doorkeepers in the galleries gave seats to all comers, but allowed no loitering in the aisles and doorways.

The commonwealers who have reached the promised land do not find it flowing with milk and honey. While General Coxey and Marshal Browne stopped at a hotel, shabby tents provided accommodation for the commonwealers. Leaders and privates were swarmed like rats in the commissary wagons, many sleeping without blankets. There was a scramble for shelter in the horse sheds in which Coxey's high priced stallions were stabled. In the shed attached to the club house half a hundred privates struggled in the straw like sardines in a box. Camp George Washington might have been entitled Valley Forge.

There will be no Coxey talk in the House of Representatives, if those who direct legislation can prevent it. Resolutions bearing on Coxey's bills or the treatment of or hearing for Coxey's delegations will be promptly referred to committees without debate, and there is no likelihood that a measure will emerge until the agitation subsides. The only means by which reference to Coxey can be made will be the injection of Coxey into debate on the pending appropriation bills.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 30.—Calvin and his men did not leave Columbus to-day. He will speak to-night and take up a collection. Seven men are in the hospital. There are 110 in camp. These want money to travel by rail.

The Portland Industrials Lodged in Jail.

PORTLAND, Or., April 30.—The Portland contingent of Coxey's army, who seized a Union Pacific train at Troutdale yesterday and were arrested by United States troops at Arlington, were brought back to this city early this morning. "General" Scheffer, "Quartermaster-General" Breckridge and fifty others were taken to jail and the remainder were placed under guard of the regular troops. The Industrials number 57 in all.

When the officers and their prisoners reached the county jail a meeting of Commonweal sympathizers was being held on the plaza opposite. When the prisoners were observed the crowd deserted the speaker and rushed around the prisoners, cheering them and following them to the jail entrance. The result of the meeting on the plaza was the organization of a home reserve, and it is claimed that 2,500 signatures have already been obtained.

The Situation on the Great Northern Road.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., April 30.—A special train bearing four companies of United States troops from Fort Snelling arrived to-day. There are 201 men under command of Major J. H. Peters. Several missiles were thrown at the train. At St. Cloud one soldier was hit with a brick and another was hit in the pit of the stomach with a coupling pin. At Crookston some one fired a shot at the engineer. The train brought a pile driver and two bridge screws to rebuild the burned bridges west of Minot. As soon as these are replaced it is believed a train will be sent through to the coast.

Serious trouble is feared on the Montana Central and possibly at Devils Lake, N. D.

Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The time of the Senate was occupied to-day in spicy colloquies between Hale, Teller and Aldrich on one side and Harris and Voorhees on the other, upon the question of why no better progress is being made with the Tariff bill.

"I want to say here," said Voorhees, in the most impressive manner, "that in spite of other changes that may be made, no matter what may be floating in the air, the income tax will stay in this bill."

Mrs. Beecher's Finances.

BROOKLYN, April 30.—Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher, whose eighty-second birthday will occur on August 18th, has been obliged by financial stringency to move from her comfortable little home at the corner of Hicks and Orange streets to a small flat in the Plymouth apartment house on Orange street.

The Oldest Grapevine.

The oldest grapevine in the country was indeed interesting. One growing near this, which was known to be more than 80 years old, died finally of good old age and was purchased and transported in its entirety to the Chicago fair. This one is 47 to 50 years of age and hale and hearty yet. At the base it is 52 inches in circumference. It grows straight up for about 3 feet, then divides into six branches, and at this point is 5 feet in circumference. At a height of perhaps 7 feet it spreads itself in all directions over an immense arbor covering a space by actual measurement of 75 by 60 ft. It bears in one season 1,500 bunches of the purple mission grape, of which no use is made except to feed the stock and given away by its owner to any one who will take it. —Santa Barbara Cal. Troy Times.

One of the Delights of Life.

When old Kaiser Wilhelm was still Prince of Prussia, he had one day at Babelsberg, near Potsdam, his beautiful and ever favorite residence, a visit from that prince among landscape gardeners, Gust. Hermann von Puckler-Muskau, who somewhat bluntly expressed his disappointment at the slow rate of progress in certain improvements in the grounds—improvements which he had himself suggested on the occasion of a previous visit. The future emperor pleaded his limited means. "But does your royal highness never borrow money?" queried Prince Puckler, evidently much amazed. "Never, my dear prince," was the smiling reply. "Then your royal highness has never tasted life's greatest delight—to wit, the pleasure of finding yourself able to pay your debts, after all!" —Chicago Tribune.

"THE PRIZE WINNER."

The Sweet Singer Karl Gardner, to Appear at the Opera House.

In reference to the appearance of Charles A. Gardner, the popular German comedian, known throughout the land as "Karl, the sweet singer," whose engagement in this city commences on Monday, May 7th, at the Opera House, Mr. James R. Garey, who is not only Mr. Gardner's manager, but the author of his most successful play "The Prize Winner," now gives for the first time valuable historic information to Americans. Mr. Garey, who has closely studied, making several trips to the Turnerfest in Austrian Tyrol, to gather not only authentic data and personal experience, but to secure historically correct costumes, says that it is easily proven that the "Turners," as known in this country, are in reality the pioneers in physical culture, Father Jahn, being to them the same as Edison or any great American inventor or leader is to us. Charles A. Gardner's rapid rise to the front rank in American-German comedy is due to a personality, enhanced by the sweetest of voices, lightest eccentric dancing, and a charmingly droll humor. His new songs, "The Turner's Triumph," "Apple Blossoms," "The Butterfly," "The Flower Girl," and "Wedding Bells," are all of superior merit, catchy in the extreme, and have become the rage in the East. As an extra added feature to enliven the Turnerfest scene in the second act, the various Turner societies joined in the festivities and competed for a number of prizes; indeed the title of the play, which by the way possesses unusual dramatic worth, touches upon an incident in this very scene. The newly imported Tyrolean singing and dancing club, whose American appearance has gained the highest appreciation, will introduce their many characteristic specialties. The Tyrolese, themselves, and fresh mountain breezes of the piece go toward receiving the highest ecstasies from theatre-goers who are on the lookout for novelty. All new and special scenery is used in the production.

SEEKING PASTURAGE IN NEVADA.

Low Rates on Stock From California. The stockowners in the drought-stricken valleys of California are seeking pasturage for their flocks and herds in Nevada and Utah, and it is probable that all the available ranges in Nevada will be occupied this season. The San Francisco Chronicle says: A train of 100 cars of sheep was moved out of the San Joaquin valley yesterday, and for the next few weeks similar trains will follow one another as rapidly as possible. The lack of rain has dried up the pasturage in the whole of the Salinas valley and on the western side and upper end of the San Joaquin valley. In fact, a line drawn through Monterey due east, would have on the north of it the dried up pasture lands. This same line continued through Nevada would have to the north of it all the finest pasture in that State and Utah.

No such fine pasturage has been enjoyed in Nevada and the Montana territory in years. There is, in fact, much more feed than cattle to consume it. Last year these pastures lay idle for three years ago the fearfully severe winter killed the cattle in thousands and destroyed the pasturage. Now, however, the lands have fully recovered.

In view of the drought in this State the Southern Pacific Company, in order to save the cattle, is carrying them from the San Joaquin and Salinas valleys into Nevada and Utah at a trifle above the actual cost of labor and fuel. Hitherto the rate per carload has been from $90 to $125; now it has been put down from $25 to $30 per car.

There are vast tracts of land which are used for nothing else but pasturage, as for instance the Rancho Grande, near Wells, 100 miles by 200 miles in area. The Central Pacific has tracts as large as 35,000 acres, and there are many others capable of saving from starvation twice as many cattle as there are in the two dried-up valleys of this State.

Held up by Footpads.

James Haynes the painter had a narrow escape Sunday night from being done up by two footpads. He was walking along the track near the electric light works when a man jumped out from back of a boxcar and grabbed him by the arm. A pal of the robber's ran to assist him, but Haynes broke away and Henry Hoffman appearing opportunely upon the scene, the robbers fled.

Catarrh In Its Worst Form Life Almost a Burden A Glorious Change Duo Solely to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Catarrh is a constitutional disease, and therefore it can only be cured by a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla. Read what it did for Mrs. King, concisely expressed in her own voluntary words: "C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: 'Gentlemen:—From a grateful heart I write what your grand medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla, has done for me. Five bottles cured me of catarrh in its worst form. I think it was only a matter of time, when it would have ended in Bronchial Consumption.'

I can scarcely realize wherein a few months ago life was almost a burden, sick and discouraged, now I am Well and Happy, gaining flesh and a new being. And all owing to Hood's Sarsaparilla. I will never be without it. Yours gratefully. MRS. CLARK KING, Geneva, Ohio.

FOR LITTLE FOLKS.

A Young Bicycle Rider.

Boston claims the proud distinction of having the youngest bicycle rider in the world. Master Thomas John Shepherd is his name, and he lives with his father in Roslindale, a suburb and annexed part of Boston proper. Thomas is a daisy, and he rides the wheel with the pleasure and the knowledge of a veteran. He is but 4 years old now, and he began to ride when he was but 3. He rode a 29 pound wheel last season and weighed just two pounds more than his machine. This year he will ride a new bicycle built especially for him, which will weigh just 9 1/4 pounds, and his father is of the opinion that it will not be the youngest, although he did some long distance work last year that seems simply incredible when one considers his years and his size.

He is exactly 3 feet 4 inches in height and wears the sweater with the emblem of the Roslindale Bicycle Club. His father is an enthusiastic wheelman, and the boy often accompanied him last season on his rides about the country. The longest ride he ever took was one of 25 miles, at an eight or nine miles an hour pace. There is an interesting incident explaining how the boy learned to ride. Thomas had a three wheeled velocipede and he was much interested in it and took great pleasure in it. He soon began to covet a safety, and his father took off one of the rear wheels of his velocipede, and substituted a single wheel. He told his little enthusiastic son that if he learned to ride that wheel he could have a safety. This was an easy job for the little chap, and he soon mastered the mystery of keeping his equilibrium on his new steed. Then came the regular safety, which Thomas John Shepherd rides with pleasure and enjoyment. He has a medal which was presented to him by a party of gentlemen whom he met on the road on one of his trips. It is presented to the "youngest known rider in America."—Bearings.

A Snow Leopard.

Recently, and within a few days of each other, two valuable additions have been made to the collection of animals at the zoological gardens. Both belong to the feline family, and both are leopards, but here the similarity ceases. The one is entirely black, with short fur and accustomed to the tropical climate of Johore, in the Malay peninsula, while the other is a snow leopard, with long fur and thick, shaggy tail. The latter is a native of the heights of the Himalayas, and that it is a dweller in a cold climate is fully evidenced by the length of its fur. The snow leopard is docile and good natured, so that the keeper can enter his cage with impunity. The black leopard, on the contrary, is ferocious. Although in a wild state, snow leopards are by no means uncommon in some parts of the Himalayas, and their skins are no unknown trophy to hunters, the newcomer of the zoological gardens is the only representative of the Felis uncia in captivity. His present abode is in the lion house, where he is housed because of the dryness of the atmosphere, which is more essential to his well being than his native cold, for he is a martyr to bronchitis. On the voyage home he became very friendly with the cook and thereby contracted luxurious habits. With his morning meal he drinks tea and milk, and mutton broth is his favorite food. The ages of the two newcomers are uncertain, but they are believed to be between 18 months and 2 years. Of the two the snow leopard is by far the more valuable from the zoologist's point of view. He represents a totally distinct species, the Felis uncia, from which is derived "ounce," a name by which he is locally known, and is as different from the ordinary leopard as the Persian is from the ordinary short haired cat.—London Graphic.

Origin of Boys' Brigades.

The Rev. R. M. Deming of the New York Baptist Missionary society recently delivered an address on "The Boys' Brigade" in the Strong Place Baptist church, Brooklyn. Mr. Deming is the originator of this brigade and spoke eloquently of its object, growth and power throughout the United States. The idea of a boys' brigade originated in the west and proved very popular in that section of the country. The first company in New York was organized in 1892. Then companies were formed in Brooklyn. In Brooklyn and New York there are over 3,500 boys enrolled as members of the brigade. Mr. Deming said: "The movement is not a scheme to provide for the boys a perpetual picnic or free circus, neither does it develop in them a spirit of belligerency. It is emphatically the opposite of all this. Its sole aim is to create in the boys the highest Christian character possible."—Brooklyn Citizen.

BALD HEADS!

What is the condition of yours? Is your hair dry, harsh, brittle? Does it split at the ends? Has it a lifeless appearance? Does it fall out when combed or brushed? Is it full of dandruff? Do your scalp itch? Is it dry or in a heated condition? If these are some of your symptoms be warned in time or you will become bald.

Skookum Root Hair Grower

is what you need. Its production is not an accident, but the result of scientific research. Knowledge of the diseases of the hair and scalp led to the discovery of how to treat them. "Skookum" contains neither minerals nor salts. It is not a dye, but a deliciously cooling and refreshing tonic. By stimulating the follicles, it stops falling hair, cures dandruff and grows hair on bald heads.

Keep the scalp clean, healthy, and free from irritating eruptions by the use of Skookum Skin Soap. It destroys parasitic tinea, which feeds on and destroys the hair.

If your druggist cannot supply you send direct to us, and we will forward promptly, on receipt of price. Grower, $1.00 per bottle; $4 for $2.00. Soap, 50c per jar; $4 for $2.00.

Sneezing Out the Wedding Party.

The Rev. R. S. Hawker, in the course of some reminiscences of an aged friend of his, quotes an anecdote which this friend, himself a clergyman, was fond of telling. It is about a marriage ceremony and a pinch of snuff, and in the narrator's own language runs thus:

"It was always the custom in those days for a clergyman after the marriage to salute the bride first before any other person. Well, it was so that I had just married a very buxom, rosy young lady, and when it was over I proceeded to observe the usual ceremony. But I had just taken an enormous pinch and I was so full of snuff, I sneezed so hard that the bride received my kiss— I gave her a smart kiss for her good looks—than she began to sneeze. The bridegroom kissed her of course, and he began also. Then the third man advanced to the privilege. But the lady, for he began to sneeze awfully, and by and by the bride made a dash for the door and all kinds of things, till the whole party went sneezing down the aisle, and the last thing I heard outside the church was 'Teh, teh, teh' (all the noise was drowned by the bells from the tower.)"—London Tit-Bits.

Paper Tips For Bicycles.

The writer has visited the experimental shop of the parties who are working out the idea of making tires from paper for bicycles. A pressure equal to 120 pounds was brought to bear upon a rubber tire wheel in the presence of the writer, and the tire sunk in at the bottom. Then the same kind of a wheel was treated in the same way as regards pressure, but the tire was made of paper. The same weight did not cause the tire to sink in so much as in the case of the rubber one. Thus the paper tire can be run over cobblestones, ruts, ruts, mud, etc., and be less affected. The continual squeezing together and flattening of the rubber tire has a tendency to wear the rubber and cause a fracture. The paper tire, being less liable to flatten or sink in, is not subject to this wear.—Boston Commercial Bulletin.

Things made wholly or in part of clay and baked, which are opaque, are called pottery. Those which are semitransparent are porcelain.

The most stubborn skin and scalp diseases, the worst forms of scrofula, all blood taints and poisons of every name and nature are utterly rooted out by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. For every disease caused by a torpid liver or impure blood, it is the only remedy so certain and effective that it can be guaranteed. If it fails to benefit or cure you have your money back.

Eczema, tetter, salt-rheum, erysipelas, boils carbuncles, enlarged glands, tumors and swellings, and every kind of ailment, are completely and permanently cured by it.
